harmful prejudices against women, such as their inferiority and servitude to men.

legislation to limit out-of-pocket costs for patients, while others are proposing additional transparency.

type 1 diabetics usually develop neuropathy after more than 10 years of getting affected with diabetes.